

Make your home dementia-friendly

Description

A thought-provoking film was shared by Alzheimer's Society at the Dementia Care Conference, which drew nearly 40 delegates from public and charity sectors – including Patricia Berry from MMHS.

In How I Made My Home Dementia-Friendly, Alzheimer's Society ambassador Wendy Mitchell shares her story of living with the disease.

The conference heard that dementia will affect more than a million people by 2025.

Category

1. Friends & Family

Date Created

09/04/2020

Author

cliveprice