

Take a break

We all know a change is as good as a rest. Thatâ??s especially true if youâ??re a carer.

If you provide care for a relative, friend or neighbour, thereâ?? Il be times when you need to take a break.

You may wish to attend appointments or simply take time out. Which? explains the respite care options available, how to choose and finance this type of care, and what benefits it can offer you and the person you care for. (Photo: Clive Price)
