NEV THE REV IS A TIME LORD

SOCIETY RESIDENT REVD NEVILLE PUGH HAS FOUND METHODIST MINISTERS DON'T RETIRE. THEY JUST MAKE TIME

Dr Who returns to the nation's TV screens this spring. But the Housing Society already has its own 'time lord' in Revd Neville Pugh. However, Peter

This is where 'Nev the Rev' – as he's affectionately known – creates his clocks with natural wooden cases, traditional mechanisms and Westminster chimes. Over the years he's produced 20 of these sevenfoot-tall time pieces.

Nev's clockmaking started

Sabre rattling over Gibraltar. Mary Poppins being remade. Rising costs of commuting. Itâ??s all been a mixed bag of news from the wider world in the recent beautiful spring weather. Thankfully, the latest edition of Roof â??nâ?? Roots offers much more with its heart-warming blend of people stories and practical advice:

how Society resident Revd Neville Pugh makes time â?? literally;

- welcome to new Methodist pensions manager Meena Tooray;
- how to sort out those annoying practical problems around your home;
- the Methodist dancer who inspired award-winning film La La Land;
- how to bless your home using The Methodist Worship Book.
