

SPRING 2018

Description

THE BOOK OF MARY

MMHS RESIDENT REVD MARY RANDLE HAS PUBLISHED HER LIFE STORY – AND SHE’S GIVING THE PROFITS TO THE SOCIETY. THERE’S SOMETHING ABOUT MARY...

A shotgun blast changed life forever for young Jack Forster and the family he would raise.

The teenager and his brothers were shooting birds on their Warwickshire farm. The gun went off by accident. Jack survived, but his sight didn't. Yet that didn't stop him from visualising his future.

He set up his own basket making

After what seems like the longest winter in living memory, we hope spring has finally sprung. But one thing is for certain – the latest edition of Roof 'n' Roots is out!

We hope our newsletter arrives like a ray of sunshine, offering comfort and inspiration to our residents. Here are just some of the contents:

- Society resident Revd Mary Randle publishes her story and helps MMHS;
- why gas safety checks are vital and how to help make them happen;
- our most recent Board Chair Ros Peedle shares her story;
- how to make sure your gutters are great;
- special extract from a past sermon by the late Revd Alan Ashton.
