

AUTUMN 2023

Description

The golden hues of the season greet us, even if it's cooler and wetter. So we all need a bit of inspiration and encouragement. There's plenty to enjoy in the latest edition of *Roof 'n' Roots*.

roof 'n' roots

The Newsletter of the Methodist Ministers' Housing Society • Autumn 2023

HALL OF HEROES: Les and Di (centre) with Yare Folk, the group who regularly pack out a remote village hall for their music sessions

METHODISM'S DYNAMIC DUO OF TRAD – LES AND DI – CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING IN OUR 75TH ANNIVERSARY YEAR. THEY'RE FORGING COMMUNITY WITH FOLK MUSIC

The couple became not only a popular folk music duo at such events – but also husband and wife. Now they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary during MMHS's 75th year.

Les, now 69, grew up in the same Surrey town as composer Paul Field – who Among those venues was Methodist Central Hall, Westminster. They shared the bill with psychedelic folk-rockers Parchment – who enjoyed chart success with Light Up The Fire. Folk was a powerful wave, and Les and Di were riding it, even though not full-time musicians.

Here are some of the heart-warming stories:

- how to create community with folk music;
- the story behind our 75th anniversary song;
- how to defeat damp in your home;
- how to walk the labyrinth of life.

These articles – and more – can be found in the Autumn 2023 edition of our regular news and feature publication.

Category

1. Roof 'n' Roots

Date Created

01/11/2023

---

Author

cliveprice