Meeting housing needs... and offering wellbeing support

For more than 75 years, MMHS has been providing quality housing on charitable terms for those who qualify for our help.

OUR VISION

'There was not a single person in need among them' Acts 4:34

OUR MISSION

 to meet the housing and housing-related needs of retired Methodist Ministers of limited means, and spouses, widows and widowers to offer support for wellbeing in the key areas of their mobility and independence

OUR VALUES

 we have a Christian ethos of which we are proud, underpinning who we are and what we do our concern is to show high standards of care and to be professional both as individuals and as an organisation

WE ...

 operate in the UK, the Isle of Man and The Channel Islands provide safe, warm and comfortable homes and associated services provide for those who retire at usual retirement age and for those who retire early on health or compassionate grounds care for widows, widowers and dependants of ministers who die in active service offer an equity sharing scheme, whereby retiring ministers take an equity interest in their MMHS property run a small equity sharing fund whereby MMHS takes an equity share in a property owned by both retiring and retired ministers ensure our properties are suitably adapted for use and fully accessible assist residents with their mobility needs
